

CROP PRODUCTION IN INDIA

NIRAJ SANJAY RAUT

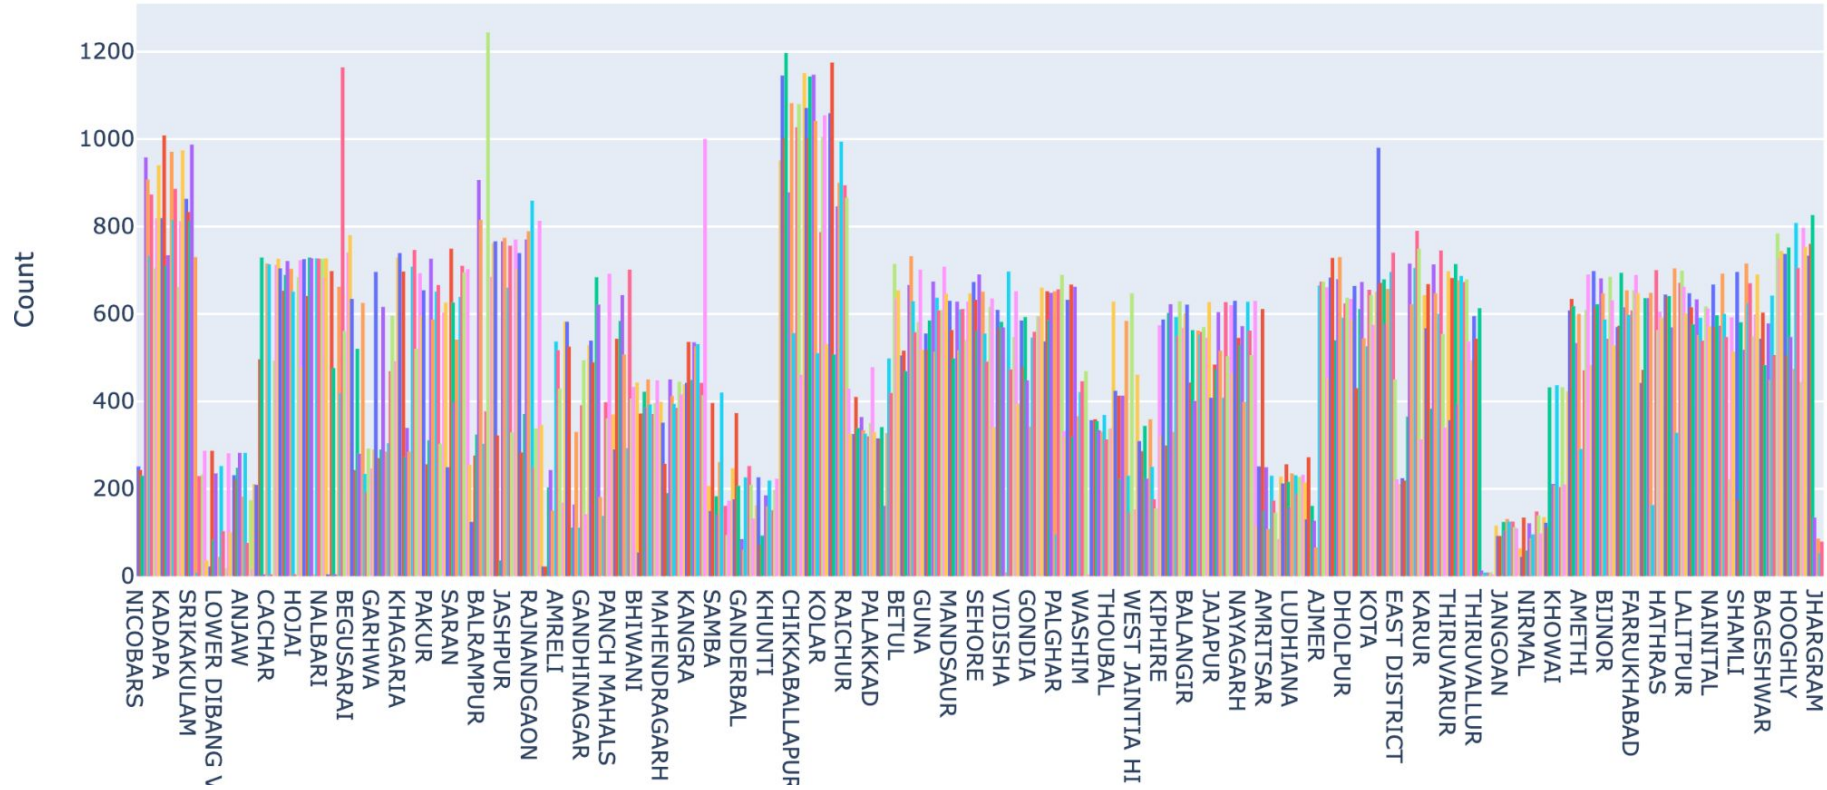

Overview

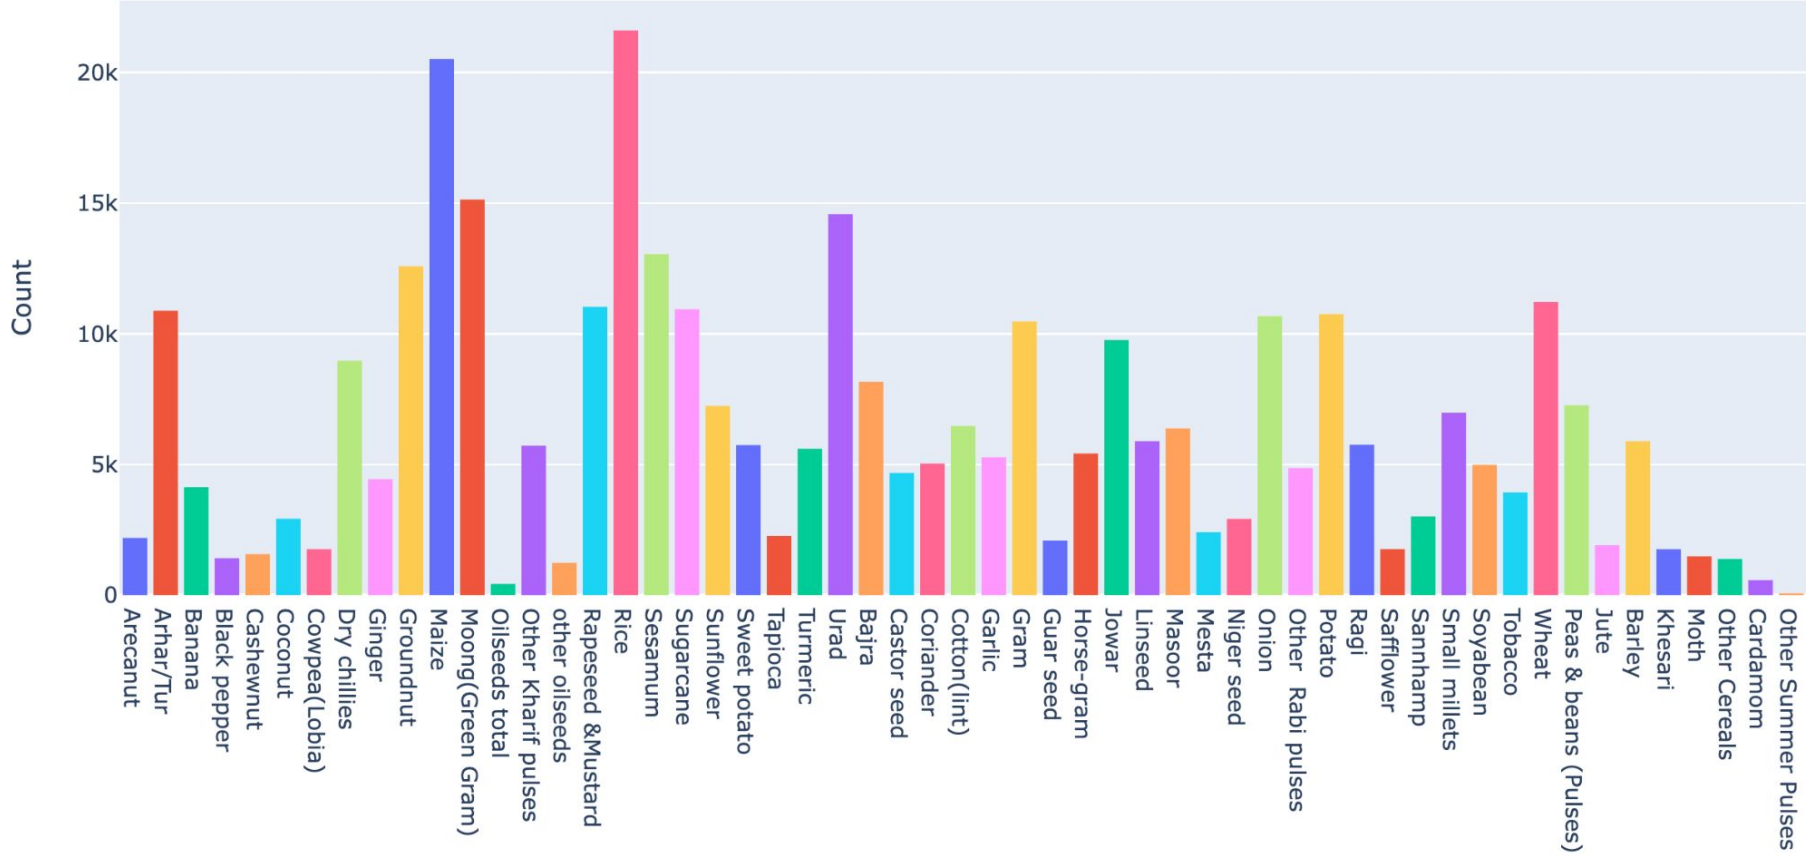

Agriculture is an important sector in India. It is indispensable for the sustenance and growth of the Indian economy. On an average, about 70% of the households and 10% of the urban population are dependent on agriculture as their source of livelihood.

State

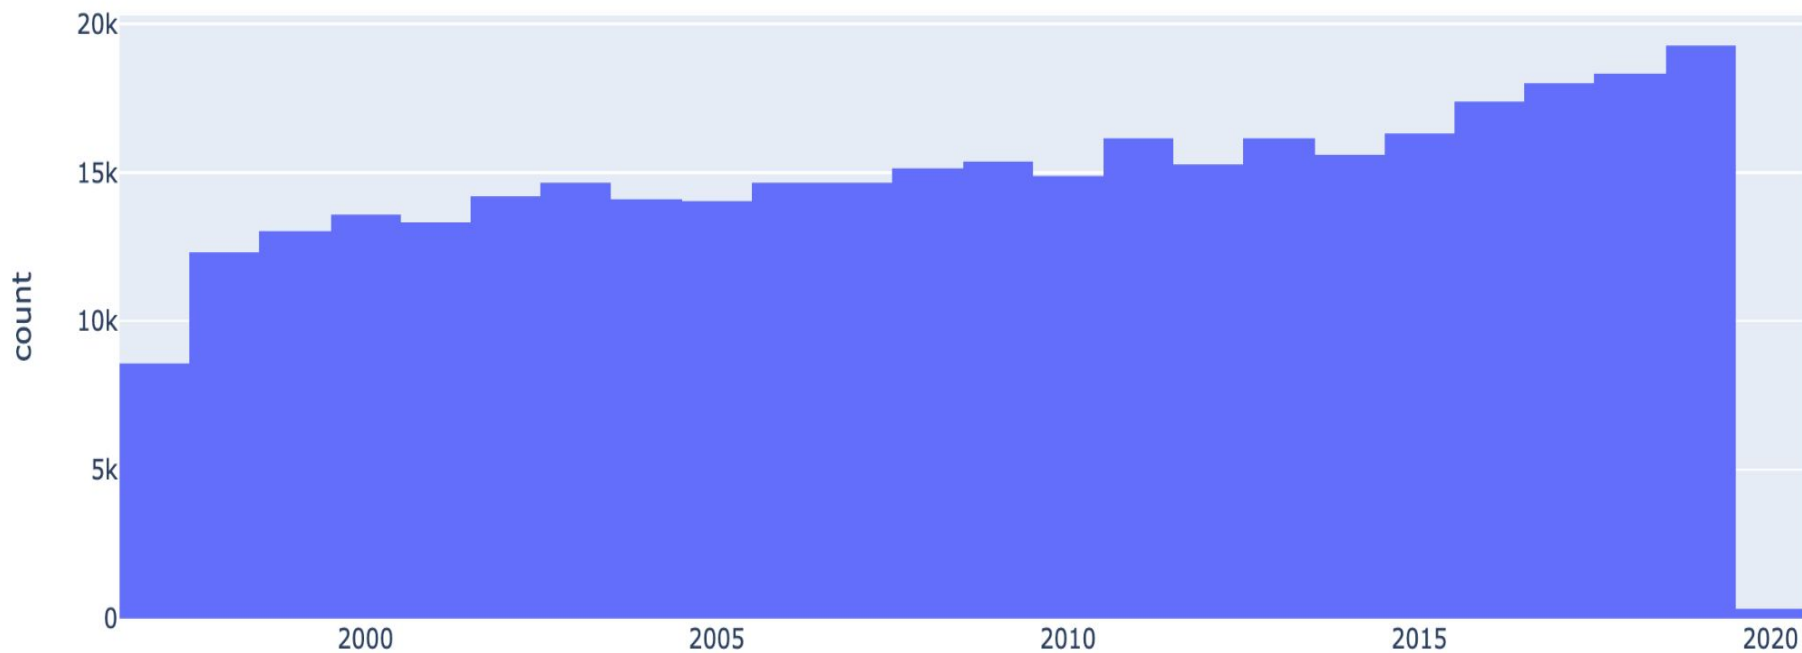

District

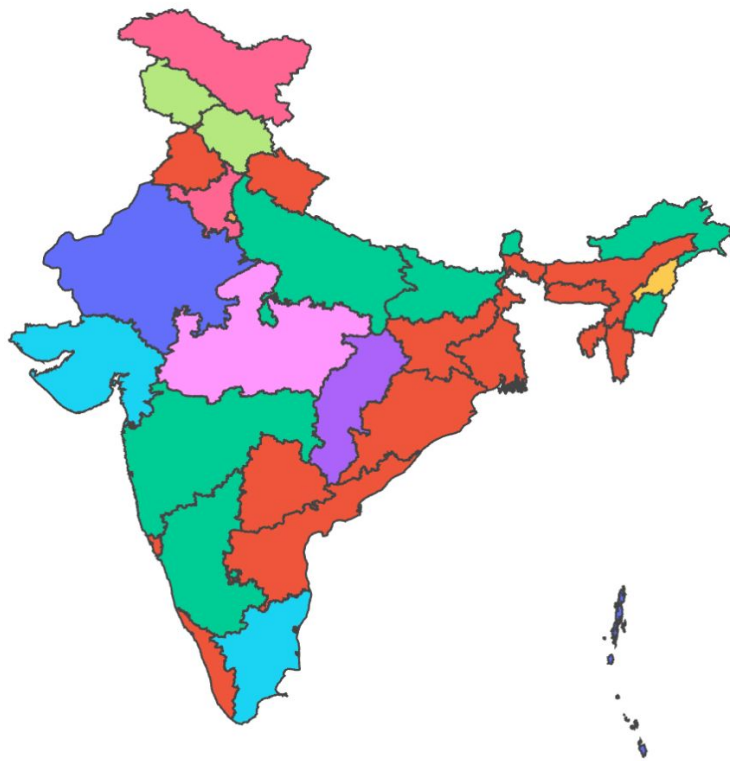

Crop_Year

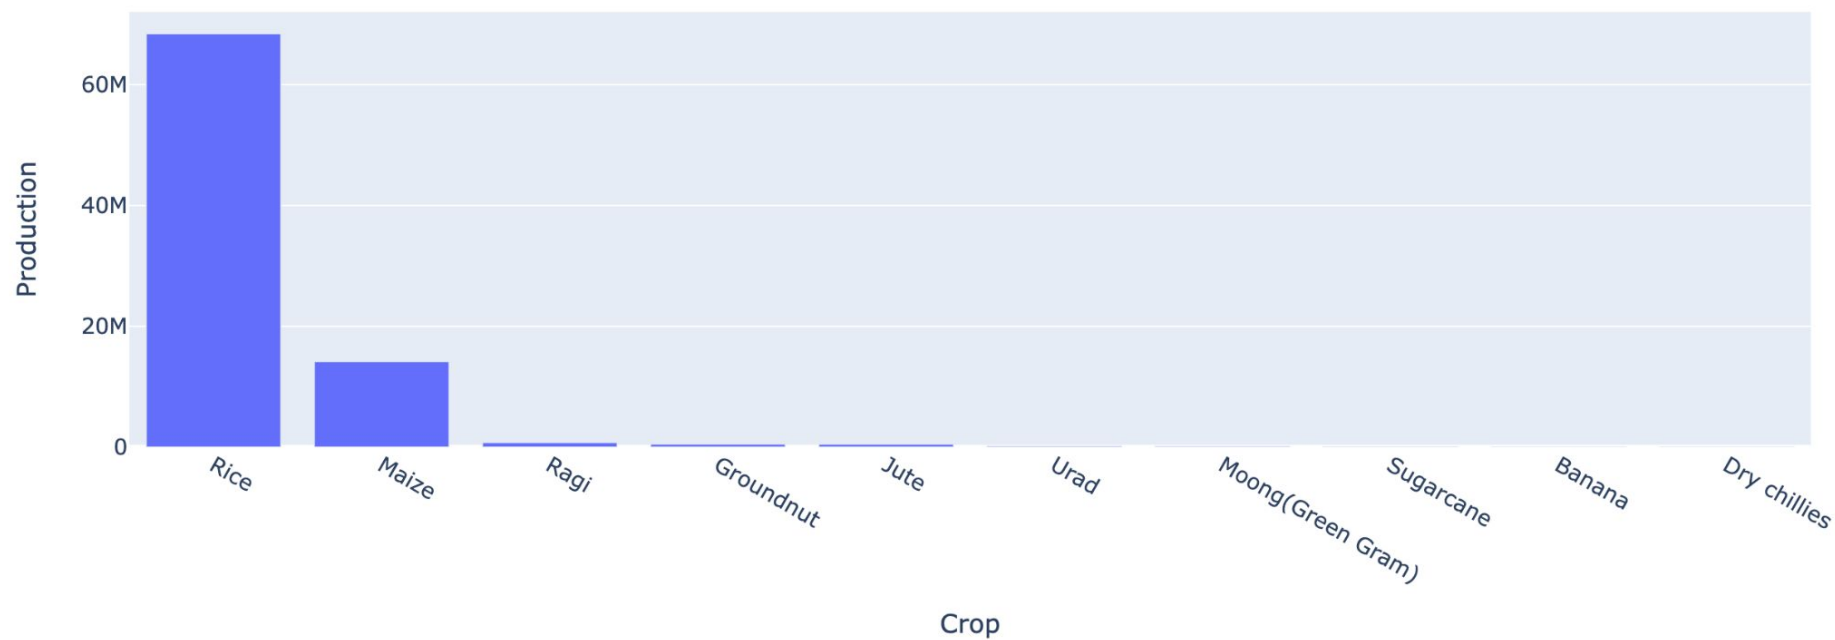

Most Commonly Grown Crops in India by State

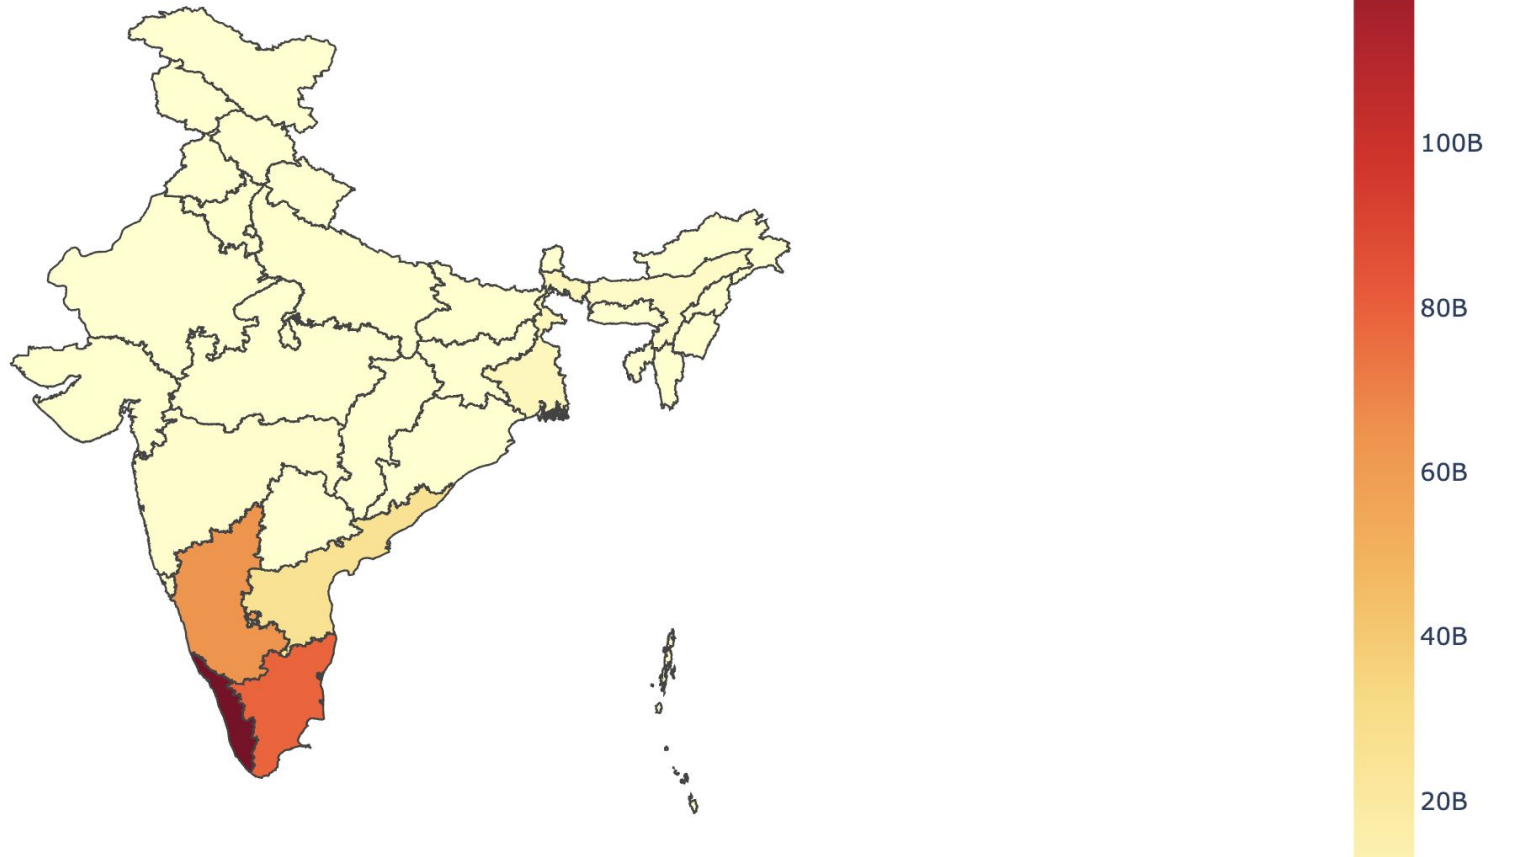

Crop

- Arecanut
- Rice
- Maize
- Moong(Green Gram)
- Bajra
- Groundnut
- Wheat
- Potato
- Jowar
- Peas & beans (Pulses)
- Rapeseed & Mustard
- Garlic

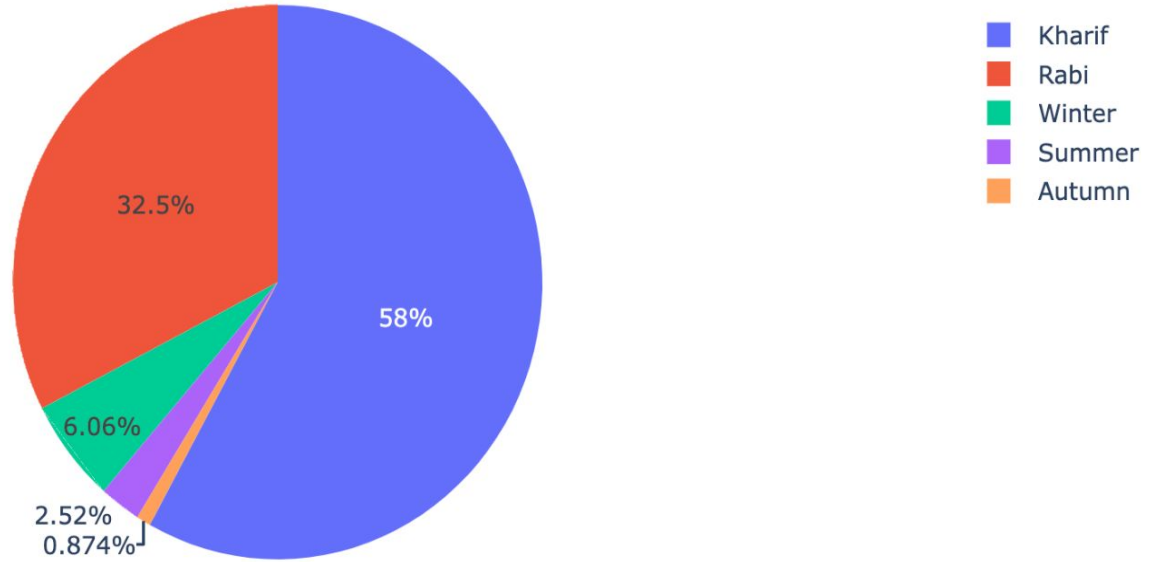

Highest Crop Production in Autumn

production throughout the whole year by state

Percentage of Production for Crops in Each Season

Overall Production by Year

